9th Night of Christmas

You're invited to the "9th Night of Christmas - Nine Ladies Dancing", part of the 12 Days of Christmas celebration. The Task Force for Children's Art and the City of Pineville invite you to the Main Street Community Center on Monday, December 11 at 6:00PM for an evening of music and dance including the following performers:

- ▶ Liturgical Dancers from Zion Hill Baptist Church
- ▶ Xylophone and Drum selections by Marco Nogic of J.I. Barron Elem.
 - ▶ Special Music by Kelsey Anderson of Pineville High School

- ▶ The LA College/Cenla Symphonic Band, and
- ▶ "Open Mike" for poetry, readings, music (Christmas related)

The public is invited at no charge. (There will be a box at the door to receive canned goods for the Food Bank.) Refreshments will be served. Doors open at 5:45PM. This is a come and go event. Santa Claus will be with us all evening - bring a camera and take your child's picture with Santa!

In addition to all this, the Pineville High School Art Department will open their week long Seniors' Art Show, "Remake of the Masters" in the Upstairs Gallery. This will be on exhibit for one week only and is the very first time this exhibit has been on display out of the school. (Mrs. Jeannie Basco is the Artist/Teacher for this event.)

Mayor & City of Pineville Honored

Louisiana's largest city was the gathering place August 10th – 12th for elected officials from around the state. J. Lynn Lewis, mayor of Delhi (center), was installed as president of the Louisiana Municipal Association on Saturday, August 12, at the conclusion of the LMA's 69th annual convention, the state's largest gathering of municipal officials, representing over 300 villages, towns and cities in Louisiana. Also installed Saturday night were Clarence R. Fields, mayor of Pineville (left), LMA first vice president, and Bill Robertson, mayor of Minden (right), LMA second vice president. Mayor Fields served as LMA second vice president last year and will become LMA's highest ranking officer next August.

The City of Pineville was also recognized with a 2005 Community Achievement Award for outstanding achievement in basis services. Pineville was recognized for the city's unified response to Hurricane Katrina and Rita, and how officials responded together to convert the old Pineville Wal-Mart into a small thriving community.

LMA's 69th annual convention drew more than 1,300 delegates, spouses, exhibitors, guests, and dignitaries. Governor Kathleen Babineaux Blanco, U.S. Senator Mary Landrieu, U.S. Representatives Richard Baker, Charles Melancon, and Bobby Jindal, Lieutenant Governor Mitch Landrieu, Secretary of State Al Ater, Attorney General Charles Foti, Agriculture and Forestry Commissioner Bob Odom, Insurance Commissioner James Donelon, and Miss Louisiana 2006 Jamie Wilson of Minden were among those headlining the state's largest gathering of municipalities in the Capital City.
